

SUPPLEMENTARY DRAFT EXAMINATION QUESTIONS: BCOD 2212
COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION AND ORGANIZATION

Instructions: Answer question One and any other Two

Q1 (a) Explain community mobilization as a method of Community Development. (10 marks)

(b) Distinguish the following approaches to community development in Kenya: Community mobilization and Social action. (10 marks)

(c) You are a Community Development expert in community X and you have been tasked with the project of mobilizing members of that community to improve on deteriorating educational standards in that community. Discuss in detail, giving relevant examples how you would achieve that. (10 marks)

Q2. (a) Explain the utility of community mobilization and organization in our contemporary Kenyan communities. (10 marks)

(b) With relevant examples, describe any two theoretical perspectives used in community mobilization. (10 marks)

Q3 (a) Explain any 5 key principles of community mobilization. (10 marks)

(b) Describe any 2 common community mobilization intervention models. (10 marks)

Q4. (a) Describe the social action process. (10 marks)

(b) Explain the roles of a community organizer. (10 marks)

Q5. (a) Briefly explain Saul Alinsky's philosophy and approach to social action. (10 marks)

(b) With relevant examples, describe various community organization models. (10 marks)

Q6. Pick a project which you would like to introduce in your community. Use the social action process to help you "think through" how you would plan, implement and evaluate that project. (20 marks)